▶ Feature:

1. The mobile client software is an APP for Android system pad, with a simple and elegant interface

2. Use tablet computers as tools to control the terminals in the system through WIFI or mobile network

3. Easy access, you can access the broadcasting system wherever there is Wifi, and perform on-demand, speech, file upload, and terminal management

4. More flexible and intelligent than ordinary remote control, making use of existing resources

5. Support user authority management, the mobile client software must be logged in before it can be used

6. Any user can set permissions through the network audio system control software and specify the terminals to be controlled

7. With multiple users logging in at the same time, users with high permissions give priority to the playback tasks of users with low permissions

8. Real-time terminal status viewing, after the user logs in to the mobile client, the playback and connection status of the terminals within the permission can be viewed in real time

9. With real-time speaking function, after logging in to the mobile client, you can speak to any single or multiple terminals specified within the permission

10. With program on-demand function, after logging in to the mobile client, you can play the songs on the server to a single or multiple terminals within the permission

11. With file upload function, you can upload the music on the tablet to the server, and then play it on demand on the specified terminal within the authority

12. It supports scheduled task management. After logging in to the mobile client, you can add scheduled tasks to the specified terminal within the authority